Extraordinary Nurrative---Indian Desperation The following letter, says the S. W. American, is from a gentleman connected with the Government service on the frontiers. We have read of similar instances of self-immolation among the American Indians, rather than fall into the hands of their enemies; but do not recollect gan to feel very uneasy in the saddle, a feeling any other case in Texas. All our late accounts that continued to increase at every moment, till Luther, of, in and to a piece of land situate in banded the Indians are renewing their predatory hive in swarming time," and well it might, for lands of Geo.
